Market Commentary

Indian benchmark indices continued their record-setting spree, closing at all-time highs for the fourth time in last five sessions with the Nifty closing above 9,500 level for the first time and the Sensex ending firmly above 30,500 mark. Bullishness seemed to be returning to the markets as investors aggressively piled up positions in key heavyweight stocks on account of robust foreign fund inflows, better-than-expected earnings by some blue-chip companies so far, and overnight gains in the US markets. Some support also came with the report that India's monsoon rains are expected to arrive on the southern Kerala coast on May 30, two days ahead of schedule. India looks likely to receive higher monsoon rainfall than previously forecast as concern over the El Ninot weather condition has eased. Further, investors' morale got a boost with Industry body FICCI's latest Economic Outlook Survey pegging India's gross domestic product (GDP) growth at around 7.4% for the fiscal year 2017-18.

On the global front, Asian equity markets ended mostly lower on Tuesday, as valuations look stretched with the latest rally taking place in thin volumes and led by just a few sectors. Chinese markets edged lower, after data on Monday disappointed with retail sales and industrial production seeing slower growth in April, while fixed asset investment in the first four months of the year failed to meet expectations, rising just 8.9% compared with the same period the year before.
