Market Commentary

Extending their previous session's downfall, Indian equity benchmarks ended the Wednesday's trade in red terrain, with frontline gauges ending with a cut of around half a percent, declining below their crucial 10,500 (Nifty) and 34,200 (Sensex) levels. Markets made pessimistic start and traded in red terrain throughout the session, as traders remained on sidelines ahead of December quarter GDP data to be announced later in the day. Sentiments also remained downbeat with report that the collection of Goods and Services Tax (GST) slipped marginally to Rs 86,318 crore in January 2018 (received in January/February up to February 25, 2018), from Rs 86,703 crore in December 2017. Markets extended losses, as growth in India's factory activity slowed to a four-month low in February as new orders eased and weighed on output after manufacturers raised prices at the fastest pace in a year. The Nikkei Manufacturing Purchasing Managers' Index (PMI) fell to 52.1 in February from January's 52.4.

Markets made an attempt to pare losses and recovery was seen in second half of the session, but it proved short-lived and selling in dying hour of trade dragged markets lower. Sentiments remained dampened on report that the fiscal deficit for the April-January period stood at Rs 6.77 lakh crore. That is 113.7% of FY18 target, which means Modi government may not do any extra spending in the remaining two months of the year.
