Market Commentary

Extending winning streak for fourth straight session, Indian equity benchmarks ended the Tuesday's trade in green terrain with frontline gauges recapturing their crucial 10,400 (Nifty) and 33,800 (Sensex) levels. Markets traded in green throughout the session but in a tight band. Sentiments remained up-beat since beginning, as traders bet for improved corporate earnings and acceleration in economic growth, with readings on industrial production and retail inflation due on Thursday. Traders took some encouragement with Commerce and Industry Minister Suresh Prabhu's statement that India can benefit from the ongoing challenges in global trade provided it plays its cards well. He said, "We are passing through a challenging but an opportune time. If we play our cards properly, and that is what we are trying to do we can actually benefit from it by creating an opportunity around the issues that are happening globally and we have no choice but to respond in a positive manner". Investors took note that in a major boost to infrastructure development in the north-east, NITI Aayog will soon hold a high-level meeting to chalk out strategies for improving road, rail and air connectivity in the regions besides focusing on improving hydel power production and organics farming in the states.

Positive opening in European counters too aided sentiments, as investors digest comments from Chinese President Xi Jinping on measures planned to further open up the world's second-largest economy. Asian markets rallied on Tuesday .Chinese shares ended higher after Xi sought to defuse trade tensions with the US by lifting limits of foreign investment in automobile and aircraft industries.
